- A. The mihrab is an alcove found in the side of a Mosque which tells Muslims the direction of Mecca.
- B. The Qu'ran or Koran is the Muslim holy book.
- C. The crescent moon and stars are symbols of Islam which are usually found on the top of a Mosque. Many Muslim countries have a crescent moon and stars on their flag.
- D. A minaret is a tall tower which is a part of a Mosque. The Muezzin calls the faithful to prayer from the top of this tower.
- E. When Muslims pray they usually kneel on a prayer rug. There is usually a small flaw in the weaving of the rugs as only Allah (God) is perfect.
